

Facts: DiversityHiringExpos.com

Proud to be recognized by FORTUNE MAGAZINE as Diversity Expert & Champion of Diversity – June 25, 2007

2011-2012 DIVERSITY/COLLEGE/BILINGUAL/PROFESSIONAL CAREER FAIRS

About us:

Diversity Hiring Expos.com specializes in diversity, bilingual and multicultural career fairs. We are committed to providing the most effective face to face means of recruiting all professional, multicultural candidates and college grad's in our industry.

Experience:

Jim Carter CEO, www.diversityhiringexpos.com, oversees all day to day and onsite career fair operations. Over the last 15 years, Jim has produced more than 220 successful diversity hiring events across the country. For more information and questions or to reserve a booth space, contact Jim Carter @ (770) 881-7620 or Hal Drody@ (770) 257-7265. Email: jim@diversityhiringexpos.com

Which employers will be invited and expected to exhibit at the career fairs?

Fortune 1,000 companies
America's best regional & local businesses just like yours.
All Government Agencies (federal, state, & local, military, police)
All colleges & universities
Not-for-profit organizations
Advertising Agency clients
Urban, Hispanic Associations

How many employers are expected to exhibit in each career fair?

We anticipate between 20 and 60 employers will participate.

Which job seekers will be invited and expected to attend the career fair?

All professional and multicultural candidates including African American's, Bilingual and Hispanics, Caucasians, Women, College Students, Veterans, Recent College Grads, MBA's, PhD's, Alumni and Persons with Disabilities.

How many candidates are expected in each career fair?

We anticipate between 600 and 1000(+) candidates will attend.

What is the ethnic background for expected candidates at the career fairs?

African American, Hispanic, & bi/multilingual professionals, Asian, Caucasian and others will attend.

What are the education levels of expected candidates at the career fairs?

Invitations will be sent to job seekers with 4 year degrees, Masters Degree, or higher education. Career fairs will be open to all candidates. College juniors, seniors, recent grads, and alumni will also be invited to participate.

What are the functions and industries expected to attend the career fair?

All functions and industries are invited. Industries include: Sales (All Types), Retail, Green Energy, Energy, Aerospace, HR, Engineering, Project Management, Healthcare, Banking, I/T, Accounting, Finance, Marketing, Management (All Levels), Government, Sciences, Technology, Compliance, Logistics, Distribution, Customer Service, Restaurants, Education, Law Enforcement, Entrepreneurs, Claims, Insurance, Collections, Military and more.

If you're a company interested in diversifying your workforce... Please print out and return the attached PDF registration form or download one online at www.diversityhiringexpos.com. Click on the Employer tab and follow the easy instructions or contact Jim Carter @ (770) 881-7620.

Email: jim@diversityhiringexpos.com. For additional information about each venue, go to: www.diversityhiringexpos.com